

Dining room Artwork by Hunt Slonem features bunnies that are painted on a base of indigo-colored diamond dust. The piece adds shimmer to the room and nods to the grand sparkle of a floating crystal chandelier. Exterior Bill and Giuliana Rancic's renovated brownstone in downtown Chicago was built in the 1880s. Preceding pages Designer Lonni Paul chose pale blue and ivory in the living room with fabrics including a floral linen by Lee Jofa used to make window panels, and a Vervain stripe on the ottoman. The chandelier is from Circa, and the rug is from Stark.
